

Betsson is looking for payment and anti fraud positions based in Malta

Betsson's business idea is to offer a wide variety of top notch online gaming products in a secure and user friendly environment. Today the Company offers Poker, Casino, Exchange Betting and Sports Book. Betsson is a wholly owned subsidiary to Cherryföretagen AB (publ), quoted on the Swedish stock exchange.

To our newly opened office in Malta, Betsson is looking to employ people to work within the financial department with payment and fraud issues.

- You will be working in an international environment.
- The office is located in Malta and is brand new.

The work include tasks like

- Liaise with processors to resolve player related issues and disputes
- Coordinate investigations of player accounts and KYC issues with first and second line support
- Handle and process payments

Educational requirements

- Economics or business

Personal Competencies

- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal in both English and Swedish
- High level of self-motivation
- Strong multi tasking skills
- Good numeric and analytical skills
- Confidential role requiring attention to detail as well as the ability to plan and prioritise workload
- Service minded

Highly Desirable and Preferred Experience

- Interest in online gambling – Sports betting, Casino and Poker
- Excellent communication skills in another Scandinavian language
- Experience in financial transaction reconciliation from relevant industry is beneficial
- Customer orientated

If you are interested in working for a fast paced company in an international environment, please forward your Covering Letter and CV, no later than January 31, 2006 in English to:

E-mail: jobs@betsson.com