

Studentfynd söker en marknardsförening assistant

Studentfynd is interested in hiring a marketing assistant.

Studentfynd is a newly started online company that is just for students. Students are able to place auctions and classifieds free of charge and search advertisements that have been placed by other students at their university or högskolan.

In your role as a marketing assistant your responsibilities will be varied where there will be room for you to use your creativity and initiative. Initially you will be responsible for marketing communications in Swedish. As the company grows it is expected that your responsibilities will increase and expand.

Your hours will be flexible and you will be free to coordinate your work around your study timetable. You will receive an hourly salary

You do not need to have had any work experience. However we value participation in extra curricular activities.

For more information about the company and position you can visit us at www.studentfynd.se or call Anna on 070 450 3827.

If you are interested in working for us; please send you application to administrator@studentfynd.se by the 30th of September.
