

SENIOR SALES ENGINEER SCANDINAVIA

Stockholm or Malmö

ERICO

(www.erico.com),
a global manufacturer
and marketer
of superior technical
products, systems
and solutions
for customers in
targeted markets,
offers an exciting
opportunity:

Reporting to the European Head of operations, you will be responsible for all sales in the Scandinavian countries.

You will call on distributors, agents and end-users to market, specify and demonstrate products from the CADDY® Fasteners – Electrical line.

You will have at least 5 years of channel management experience, preferably from an industrial background within the electrical sector, as well as have a relevant business or technical degree.

You are a high energised, self-starter, team player person and able to easily form new relationships with clients.

ERICO is an equal opportunity employer.
